PREFACE

This book is the history of four Harshman brothers who came to America in the year 1751. There are others of the name in this country but I have attempted nothing further than to tell the story of these four men; and even this is by no means complete.

During the eighteenth and the early part of the nineteenth century public records in the part of the country where these men settled were very meager and poorly kept. Frequently not even deeds to land were recorded. None of these states kept a record of the births and deaths, and some of them had no marriage records until near the close of the nineteenth century. Pennsylvania required no marriage license until 1885.

Of such records as were made many were destroyed during the Revolutionary War or the Civil War. When the British Army burned Washington in 1814 the Virginia records of the Continental Army together with many other ones were destroyed.

In a few cases early church lists of births, baptisms, marriages and deaths have been preserved, which have been helpful, and some old cemeteries have yielded valuable information.

As a consequence of these mutilated and meager records it is very difficult to recover that part of the history which has been lost. Accordingly there are some gaps in the history, especially in the second and third generations, which I have made every effort to fill, but as yet unsuccessfully. However there is always the possibility that new information may be discovered, and there is therefore hope that these gaps may finally be closed.

I have spent thirty years gathering this material. Every county where any of the first three generations are known to have lived has been visited and all available records carefully studied. The discoveries have been many, some of them startling in importance, and the amount of history recovered is far beyond what I had hoped for in the beginning of the work.

Nevertheless I am conscious that the story is still incomplete, and will be grateful for additional information and correction of errors.

If you are a member of this family and your name is not in this book be assured it is because I could not secure the data. Be kind enough to send them to me. If you know of others whose names should be here but are not, I would be thankful for knowledge of them.

Two copies of this book will be placed in the Library of Congress, in Washington. I will keep a careful record of such additional data as may be obtained, and when a sufficient amount has been secured to make it worthwhile, such material will be typed and placed in the Library of Congress as a supplementary volume.

Where They Live

The Harshmans are widely scattered, some being found in practically all of the states except, possibly, the New England States and a few of the Southern states. They are most numerous in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, with diminishing numbers in the states farther west, California having more than the other far western states. Annual reunions of the family are held in Washington County, Pennsylvania, Trumbull County, Ohio, Los Angeles, California, and one sometimes in north western Ohio and sometimes in north eastern Indiana. For a time one was maintained in Preble County, Ohio.

The Name

When they came to this country the four brothers spelled their name "Hirschman," but a few years later they usually spelled it either "Hershman," or "Harshman". The next generation practically all had changed it into the American form "Hershman", "Harshman", or "Hersman." At the present time probably more than eighty per cent. spell it "Harshman", and the rest are divided between "Hershman" and "Hersman". In this book I have endeavored to follow the spelling in each group as the members of the group themselves spell it.

THE HERSHMAN FAMILY

There is a family of Hershman in this country that, so far as I have been able to discover, is not related to the four brothers whose history I have been tracing.

According to Jacob Hershman of Brooke, Ind., this family is descended from one Jacob Hershman who came from Dresden, Germany, to Virginia in 1765. From Virginia the family moved to the vicinity of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and thence to Coshocton County, Ohio. There they located on Wills Creek, near the place where it empties into the Muskingum River. From that place some of them moved to Iowa, and some to Newton County, Indiana.

Personally I still have an open mind on the subject, thinking it may yet be discovered that the families have a common origin.

THE HARSHMANS OF CANADA

The following information was given me by Mr. H. H. Harshman, 182 Spadina Avenue, Toronto Canada. Two Harshman brothers came to Halifax, Nova Scotia, about 1749. They belonged to the British Navy, but he does not know what their national extraction was.

So far as I know there is no connection between this family and the Harshmans in the United States, but they may very well be from the same stock in Germany.

The Crest of the Hirschmann Family

THE CREST OF THE HIRSCHMANN FAMILY is contained in Volume 4, Page 81, in the extensive Crest-Collection by Liebmacher. This work was published in 1607 at Nuernberg, Bavaria.

The family-tree is of old Bavarian nobility, which later branched over into Wuerttemberg.

The Colors of the escutcheon are Gold and Black, diagonally divided. On a green triangular mountain-background is a stag in color, representing the gentleness and kind-heartedness of the founder.

On the helmet is the crown of this nobility, on which is an emblem showing a man, dressed in black with the head of a stag. A spear is in his right hand with which he points to the name - Hirschmann.

The drape, or cloth, of the helmet is of Gold and Black, on both sides, indicating steadfastness.

NOTE: As this description does not tally in all respects with the emblem, this is probably a variant, as is common in different branches of a family.

INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTORY CHAPTER

THE FOUR BROTHERS

It is common knowledge among the Harshmans that our first ancestors in America were four German brothers.

I distinctly remember, when about fifteen years old, hearing my father, one of his brothers, and one of their cousins discussing the matter. According to their account there were four brothers and they spelled the name "Hirschman", which means Deer-man.

As three of the grandsons of Andrew Harshman were still living, and all of them usually attended the annual Harshman Reunion in that county, Trumbull County, Ohio, where the family history was always more or less discussed, I felt that this statement about the four brothers was not a matter of tradition but of knowledge on their part.

For many years, however, I never heard the name of any one of these four brothers except Andrew.

A few years ago I found a book called "Thirty Thousand German Immigrants", by I. Daniel Rupp, giving passenger lists of various ships which brought German immigrants to America in the middle of the eighteenth century.

In one of these lists, that of the ship "Duke of Wirtemberg", Montpelier, Captain, I found the names Ulrich Hirschmann, Mattheus Hirschmann, Andreus Hirschmann and Johan Adam Hirschmann". The Duke of Wirtemberg had sailed from Rotterdam, touching at Cowes, England, and landed in Philadelphia October 16, 1751.

Immediately on reading this in Mr. Rupp's book I realized that I had found the names of the four brothers. Andrew I already knew was one. The name "Matthias" was a family name, repeated in every generation. Ulrich as a family name was new to me, and John is common in most families.

As I traced the history of three of these men any shade of doubt that I may have had disappeared. The lives of the other two are so related to that of Andrew, and the same traditions so run in the different families that there can be no question concerning the relationship of the four men.

On this ship, "Duke of Wirtemberg", were 406 passengers. Of these 159 were males over 16 years of age, and 247 were women or children. How many of these 247 were women and how many were children is not known, as only the names of the men are on record.

Ulrich had with him a wife and probably two or three children, as one of his sons, Peter, was six years old. Andrew also was married, had one son, Christian, who was seven years old, and probably other children.

Matthias and his wife, Eve, had one son born on the ocean and named George. It is not known whether this was their first child. Of the family of John Adam, if he had one, or of his later history, nothing is definitely known.

It was a very serious undertaking to migrate to the new country with women and children in the company and with all the inconveniences and hardships of travel in that day.

From four different and distinct sources in the family I have heard the tradition that the Harshmans came from Baden-Baden, and from another that they came from the Black Forest.

Baden-Baden is a city in southwestern Germany not far from the Swiss border, and it is just on the edge of the Black Forest. Mr. Clinton Harshman of Preble County, Ohio, born in 1856, is especially clear on the matter. He says he distinctly remembers his grandmother on many occasions talking about the family coming from Baden-Baden. This testimony, coming from so many different branches of the family between which there has been no communication for near a hundred years, seems to me conclusive.

As Baden-Baden is in the valley of the Rhine and not far from that stream, these emigrants probably started their journey by descending that river in small boats to Rotterdam. That was the usual route followed by emigrants from the Palatinate and adjacent districts, and a tedious and tiresome journey it was.

Kuhns, in his book "German and Swiss Settlements in Pensylvania", gives a description of one such trip:

"Another interesting account of such river journeys is that of the Schwenkfelders in 1733 from Herrnhut, Saxony, down the Elbe to Hamburg. From Berthelsdorf to Pirna, six german miles (about 28 English miles), took them two days by wagon. Here they embarked on two boats and began the descent of the Elbe, making very slow progress; the first day, from Pirna to Dresden two miles, the next four miles, the next five, then three and so on, never making more than six or seven miles a day. Leaving Pirna April 22, they reached Hamburg May 8. Here they took passage for Amsterdam, thence to Rotterdam, where they finally embarked for the New World, making, of course, the usual stop in England to take on new provisions."

Some such trip these Harshmans would have had with about an equal distance down the Rhine to Rotterdam.

The ocean voyage of that day was, even at the best, one of extreme discomfort and suffering. Each passenger carried his baggage and provisions with him. The voyage was from four to ten weeks, and in extreme cases three or four months, and there was always much sickness and sometimes many deaths. Altogether it was an experience greatly to be dreaded and only men and women of courage would attempt it. It also meant lasting separation from their home and friends, for few ever even hoped to revisit the homeland.

What then induced these brothers with their families to leave their native land and face the dangers and endure the sufferings that were the lot of the emigrant of that day?

Probably the same reasons that impelled thousands of other Germans of that period to come to America.

The first of these reasons was the industrial conditions then prevalent in Germany.

Baden is today an important German state, the fourth in size and the fifth in population. About one fourth of it lies in the Rhine valley, the remainder being hilly or mountainous, but nearly all of it, except the forests, is under cultivation or lies in meadow or pasture. It is a fertile and prosperous country and contains about 5900 square miles. The celebrated University of Heidelberg, the oldest university in Germany, founded in 1386, is today within its borders, although until 1803 it was within the Palatinate.

Within the state of Baden there is a city sometimes called "Baden" but usually "Baden-Baden," to distinguish it from Baden-Durlach. This is today a fashionable health resort, celebrated for centuries for its hot salt springs with temperatures ranging from 115 to 153 degrees. It is on the edge of the Black Forest which covers about two thousand square miles of southern Baden and southwestern Wurtemberg, and is so named from the dark color of the foliage of its fir and pine trees.

While this description of Baden today sounds very well, conditions there were far different one hundred and eighty years ago.

After the Thirty Years' War Germany was prostrate. Her commerce was destroyed, her industries ruined, and the whole country laid waste. Entire towns had been wiped out and more than half the population had perished. Other wars had followed, and now, at the period of which I am writing, though a hundred years had passed, conditions had not much improved. Taxes were exorbitant and the peasantry were scarcely able to secure a bare living. The hope of improving their condition as to these material things drove many to emigration.

The second and weightier reason for emigration to America was the hope of escape from the religious intolerance and persecution which these Protestant people suffered.

Even before the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, but much more after it, the persecution of the Protestants was incessant and extreme. None suffered more than the Dunkards, to which sect some, and probably all, of these Harshmans belonged.

This sect was of recent origin. Large numbers of people had become dissatisfied with the lack of spirituality in the State Church and in 1708 withdrew from that communion and, at Schwartzenu, Germany, organized the Dunkard Church, more properly called the "Church of the Brethren". They were driven by persecution first to another town and finally to America.

In the year 1681 William Penn made a journey through this part of Germany, and, witnessing the hardships and persecutions of the people he printed and circulated there a pamphlet describing the advantages of Pennsylvania as a place of residence and inviting these distressed people to become colonists.

This pamphlet was now bearing fruit and there was a steady stream of colonists to Philadelphia, whence they were distributed throughout Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia.

A body of Dunkards in the period from 1719 to 1729 went to America and settled in Germantown, now a suburb of Philadelphia, where their first church was organized in 1723. The coming of colonists reached its height from 1749 to 1754, within which period 31,896 arrived. In 1751, the year the Harshmans came, there were 3951.

We may therefore, very safely assume that this family from Baden-Baden came not as adventurers, but as industrious, God-fearing men and women who sought religious freedom and an opportunity adequately to provide for their families.

The same day that the passengers on the ship "Duke of Wirtemberg," landed in Philadelphia, these Harshman brothers with all the other men passengers were marched to the court house and signed the following oath of allegiance to King George the Second, of England:

I, A. B., do solemnly and sincerely promise and declare that I will be true and faithful to King George the Second, and do solemnly, sincerely and truly Profess, Testify and Declare, that I do from my heart abhor detest and renounce as impious and heretical that wicked doctrine and position that Princes Excommunicated or deprived by the Pope or any authority of the See of Rome may be deposed or murdered by their subjects, or any other whatlate, State or Pontentate hath or ought to have any power whatsoever.

And I do declare that no foreign Prince, Person, Pre-Jurisdiction, Superiority, Pre-Eminence, has authority Ecclesiastical or Spiritual within the Realm of Great Britain or the Dominions thereto belonging.

I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely and truly acknowledge, profess, testify and declare that King George the second is rightful King of the Realm of Great Britain and all others his dominions and countries thereto Belonging, and I do solemnly and sincerely declare that I do believe the Person pretending to be Prince of Wales during the life of the late King James, and since his decease pretending to be taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England by the name of James the Third, or of Scotland by the name of James the Eighth, or the Stile and Title of King of Great Britain, hath not any right or title whatsoever to the Crown of the Realm of Great Britain, nor any other the Dominions thereunto belonging. And I do renounce and refuse any allegiance or obedience to him, and do solemnly promise that I will be true and faithful, and bear true allegiance to King George the Second, and to him will be faithful against all traitorous conspiracies, and attempts whatsoever which shall be made against his Person, Crown and Dignity, and I will do my best endeavors to disclose and make known to King George the Second and his successors, all Treasons and traitorous conspiracies which I shall know to be made against him or any of them.

And I shall be true and faithful to the succession of the Crown, against him the said James and other persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands settled by an act entitled "An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the subject, and settling the succession of the Crown to the late Queen Anne and the heirs of her body being Protestants", and as the same by one other Act Entitled "An Act for the further limitation of the Crown and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the subjects", is and stands settled and entailed after the decease of the said late Queen, and for default of issue to the said late Queen, to the late Princess Sophia Electress and Duchess Dowager at Hanover, the heirs of her body being Protestants, and all these things I do plainly, and sincerely acknowledge and declare, according to these express words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common sense and understanding of the same words without any equivocation, mental evasion or Secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this recognition, Acknowledgment, Renunciation and Promise heartily, willingly and truly.

(From the book "Names of Foreigners who took the Oath of Allegiance to the Province and State of Pennsylvania 1727-1775", by William Henry Eagle)

Besides the four brothers above mentioned three other Hirschmans signed this oath, but not on the same date on which the brothers signed.

Johannes Hirschman signed Oct. 10, 1752.

F. G. Hirschman on Oct. 13, 1766

Johannes Hershman on Oct. 31, 1771.

The Harshman brothers apparently tarried for a time in Pennsylvania. There are some grounds for believing that they found a temporary home in Lancaster County, a county that had a large German Population; but this did not become their permanent home. At that time many Germans were finding their way down the Monocacy River into Maryland where they had already formed several settlements. This river flows through a beautiful valley right through the middle of Frederick County, and then empties into the Potomac.

Flowing northward through Virginia is the Shenandoah River emptying into the Potomac from the south not far from where the Monocacy empties into it from the north. This Shenandoah Valley with the Allegheny Mountains bordering it on the west and the Blue Ridge range on the east is justly famed for its great beauty. The splendid highway that runs through it north and south is traversed every year by thousands of sight seers.

Down into these two beautiful valleys came a great many of the German emigrants. The greater part stopped in Maryland but some went on into Virginia. Along with this tide of emigrants came Matthias, Andrew and Ulrich Harshman with their families. Matthias and Andrew stopped in Frederick County but Ulrich went on south into Virginia, settling in the north eastern part of Augusta County. In 1777 Augusta County was divided, and of the northern part where Ulrich lived was formed Rockingham County, of which Harrisonburg is the County Seat.

In the south western part of Frederick County is Middletown Valley, sometimes called "The happy Valley of the hills". Middletown Valley takes its name from the town of Middletown lying midway between Mount Catoclin and South Mountain, each a part of the Blue Ridge. It was settled chiefly by German emigrants about the middle of the eighteenth century. The valley is eight miles from east to west and twenty-five miles from north to south.

I have seen this valley in blossom time and in harvest time and have been much impressed with its rare beauty, its excellent crops and evident prosperity.

Andrew and Matthias settled in the southern part of this valley, Andrew near Burkittville, about six miles south of Middletown. After a period probably of about fifteen years, Matthias moved to Hampshire County, Virginia. This County is not as far south as Rockingham County, and farther west, in the foothills of the Alleghenies.

Thus we know where three of the four brothers settled and have discovered many things about their lives there. But so far we have no knowledge of the movements of the fourth brother, John Adam.

There are some reasons for thinking that he may have remained in Lancaster Pennsylvania, that he may have been a soldier in the Revolutionary War and have died in the war or soon after its close.

In the Pennsylvania Archives in the Library of Congress I found the following:

"Adam Hirschman, private in Captain James Kruge's Company of light infantry, of Col. Matthias Slough's Battalion of Lancaster, destined for the camp in the Jerseys Sept. 9, 1776."

"Hirschman, Adam, Lancaster Pa., 1781 in the third class of the 2nd Company, 8th Battalion, Lancaster County."

From H. H. Shenk, Archivist, Harrisburg, Pa. I have learned that "Adam Hirschman or Adam Hershman appears on the tax lists of Lancaster County as early as 1771, and he was taxed as a tavern keeper in Lancaster Borough in 1779."

The first Federal Census, 1790, records a widow Hershman living in Lancaster County.

These things suggest the possibility that this Adam Hirschman may have been our John Adam. The fact that his name does not appear in the 1790 census but that a widow Hershman does appear further suggests that this may have been his widow. Of course this is mere conjecture. Some time we may learn more about the matter, but for the present we can only say that we do not know whether or not John Adam left any descendants; we have found none.

As for the name in the one case being Adam and in the other John Adam, they might easily be the same person. Matthias was enrolled among the ship's passengers simply as "Matthias", but in signing deeds he always wrote his name "Matthias Ulrich". In one case that came under my notice "Abraham Harshman" was written where it is perfectly plain that it should have been "Andrew Harshman."

It may also seem strange to some people that one brother's name should be Ulrich and another's Matthias Ulrich; but that was not unusual in those German families. Sometimes two, three or more of the sons were given their father's name for one of their names. There is one case in this book where three sons in the family have the father's name. This gives us a hint that the father of these four brothers may have borne the name of "Ulrich", since it was the name of two of his sons.

On the ship's roll the name of Ulrich appears well down the list followed immediately by that of Matthias. Matthias did not write his own name; it was written by the ship's clerk. About a score of other names come next, then the name of Andrew followed by that of John Adam. On the oath of allegiance their names come in a different order.

I have already indicated that I have no record of the descendants of John Adam. Not knowing which of the remaining three is eldest I have arranged them in alphabetical order, Andrew, Matthias and Ulrich.

In order to give a connected view of the family as a whole I have first given, as far as they are known, the first two generations of all the brothers. After that the history of each brother and his descendants is given in a separate PART:

PART ONE

PART ONE

ANDREW HARSHMAN

Andrew Harshman is said to have lived to be 120 years old. The evidence supporting this tradition is as follows:

The Rev. O. F. Harshman made a considerable study of the family history about 1872-1880. In a letter to me written June 18, 1901 he says, "At a reunion in Lordstown in 1873 Daniel Hersman of Pittsburg, said that his father lived to be 107 and his grandfather 120. I took this memoranda at the time. Something over a year ago I met Dr. C. C. Hersman of Pittsburg, S. S. In conversation he told me that his great grandfather lived to be 120 years old and was married five times. He came from Germany and was past 100, perhaps 110 when he was married the last time. Evidently this doctor is related to us and the name has been changed."

A great granddaughter of Andrew married into the Winters Family. J. H. Winters in "A Sketch of the Winters Family", has this note concerning her ancestor. "Andrew Harshman, the great grandfather of Catherine Harshman, was born and spent his life in Germany, though in what portion we are not informed. He lived to the extreme age of 120, and had, at successive intervals during the course of his long pilgrimage, five wives, Catherine being descended from the third wife."

Here then are three different sources of this tradition. The last is quite circumstantial in that it tells from which wife Catherine was descended. Who ever gave this story to the Rev. Mr. Winters, however, seemed not to know that Andrew had ever come to this country. A little later in the account he says that Christian (Catherine's grandfather) "came to this country when a mere lad." He did. He came with his father when he was 7 years old.

If this story be true, as it probably is, then Andrew was 73 years old when he came to America, and he was 83 when his youngest child, Matthias, was born. Andrew died in 1798.

Matthias Harshman, the brother of Andrew, is said to have lived to be 125 years old. (See Part Two, page 207.

Andrew Harshman had seven sons and two daughters. We do not know the names of the daughters, but one of them married a Mr. Ott, or Utt. The names of the sons were Christian, William, Peter, Jacob, John, Frederick and Matthias. We do not know the order of their ages, for only three birth dates have been preserved to us, Christian April 22, 1744, Frederick 1757 and Matthias 1761.

Peter is said to have been bitten by a mad dog and had rabies. His suffering was so extreme that he begged his friends to end his life. At last they were prevailed upon to do so and his parents smothered him between two feather beds. Another account says the doctor bled him to death.

I have read in one of Dickens' novels a reference to a similar thing being done for one who had rabies—smothering him under a feather bed. Of course with Dickens this was only fiction, but it suggests that such things were sometimes done in that day when anesthetics were as yet unknown.

But the thing was so terrible that it made a deep impression on the family and has come down through the generations. Peter may have been but a boy at the time of his death, although a Peter Harshman died in Franklin County in 1792 and left an estate to be settled. This may have been another Peter, but if so I do not know who he was.

Andrew Harshman's name first appears in the public records of Frederick County, Maryland, June 25, 1763. On that date James Willing, Jr., deeded to him for a consideration of 50 pounds sterling, 112 acres of ground "Being part of a tract called the Resurvey of the Old Fox Deceived." (Book H, p. 531). This was somewhere in the vicinity of Burkittville, about six miles south of Middletown.

About 18 months later he bought another farm, this time from Jacob Funk. The deed was signed Dec. 17, and recorded Dec. 25, 1764. (Book J, p. 983). This was for 19 acres, a tract called "Part of addition to Good Luck." The consideration was 5 pounds.

August 21, 1771 Jacob Walter deeded to Andrew Harshman for a consideration of 145 pounds "All that tract of land called "William Chance", beginning at a bounded hickory tree standing near the head of a spring that leads into Potomac River, about half a mile from the river and near Adam Shearts, running thence north 22 degrees, east 150 perches, then south 17 degrees, east 182 perches, then south 55 degrees west 40 perches, north 78 degrees, west 38 perches, thence by a straight line to the beginning tree, containing 150 acres."

This is a sample of the land descriptions of that day, having trees and stumps for boundary marks, but this is exceptional in that it locates this tract about half a mile from the Potomac River.

As all these deeds were given to Andrew and not by him, his signature does not appear. His name written in the deeds, doubtless by his lawyer, is, in the first one spelled "Hershman", in the second one "Heirschman", and in the third "Harshman".

October 9, 1779, Andrew Hershman bought of John Bowson for 350 pounds, a parcel of land called "Sin's Choice", lying in Frederick County, Maryland, "beginning at a black-oak on the top of a hill on the west side of a run between the mountains that makes the great falls that go down the said mountains to the Monocacy &c." In this tract were 50 acres. Also that tract called

"Chestnut and Stones", 50 acres. (Book 2, Liber R. W., p. 306.)

June 13, 1780, he bought a tract called "Stones Enough", and one called "Round Meadow". The total price was 100 pounds, but if the number of acres is mentioned I failed to copy it. (Book 2, Liber R. W., p. 641)

Apparently sometime between this last date, June 13, 1780, and 1790 Andrew Harshman moved across the state line into Franklin County, Pennsylvania. The Federal Census of 1790 records him as living in that county. In the family were four males over 16 years of age, one male under 16, one female and no slaves. Probably a son and his family were living with him, for at that time, according to the story concerning his great age, he would not have a son under 16.

May 22, 1790 he bought 290 acres in Southampton Township, Franklin County, for the sum of 500 pounds. On June 14 he bought another tract of 150 acres for 76 pounds 12 shillings. Also on June 14, 1790, he bought a tract of 38 acres in Surgan Township.

April 23, 1791, he acquired by grant a tract of land in Frederick County, Maryland, Called "Three Tracts." Later it sold for 700 pounds. (Book W. R., p. 16. Frederick County).

Thus within about 28 years he acquired approximately 1200 acres of land for about 2000 pounds, equivalent to about $10,000. As there is no record of his ever selling any of it, it is probable that the story that he gave each son a farm and each daughter 400 pounds is correct.

As neither his daughters nor his son Christian are mentioned in the settlement of his estate after his death, it is probable that they received their portion while their father was living. After his death the farms in Franklin County, and the one called "Three Tracts Together" in Frederick County, were divided among themselves by his sons Matthias, William, Frederick, John and Jacob.

The following document is on record in Franklin County:

"Whereas Andrew Hershman, late of Frederick County, Maryland, deceased, has made no will to or for the benefit of his heirs, as is usual and customary in such cases, therefore the within named Matthias Hershman, William Hershman, John Hershman, Jacob Hershman, Frederick Hershman, heirs of the above named Andrew Hershman deceased, are determined and have resolved to seize the lands and estate of the above named Andrew Hershman, deceased, as their right and lawful inheritance, and to share and divide the same and make titles to each for his lott, and do now execute the same by these presents as will fully and more clearly appear by the following instrument:

Now these indentures made the third day of March 1798 between Matthias Hershman, William Hershman and Jacob Hershman on the one part and John Hershman and Frederick Hershman on the other part Witnesseth, that they, the said Matthias Hershman, William Hershman and Jacob Hershman for and in consideration of the sum of five hundred and eight pounds and ten shillings to each of them in hand paid by the said John Hershman and Frederick Hershman, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have granted bargained and sold alienated and confirmed and do by these presents absolutely grant bargain sell alien and confirm unto the said John Hershman and Frederick Hershman their heirs and assigns forever all that certain tract or piece of land situate and lying in Southampton Township Franklin County Pennsylvania late the property of the above named Andrew Hershman deceased, made over to him by a certain William Mc-

Cord by his indenture bearing date the 14th June 1790 as by the said indenture recorded at Chambersburg in the office for recording of deeds in and for the county of Franklin in Book A p. 306 may more fully and at large appear said tract or piece of land containing 38 acres of land and allowance of 6% for roads etc. Now this indenture Witnesseth that the above named Matthias Hershman, William Hershman and Jacob Hershman for the consideration aforesaid doth grant bargain sell and confirm the same above described tract of land unto the said John Hershman and Frederick Hershman to have and to hold to themselves their heirs and assigns forever, together with all and singular the improvements and appurtenances whatsoever in anywise thereunto belonging or appertaining and the said Matthias Hershman, William Hershman and Jacob Hershman do each for himself and his heirs and executors and administrators the aforesaid piece or tract of land to the above named John Hershman and Frederick Hershman their heirs and assigns Warrant against himself his heirs, executors and administrators and every one of them and all and every other person or persons lawfully claiming the same shall and will warrant and forever defend by these presents. In witness whereof the said Matthias Hershman, William Hershman and Jacob Hershman have hereunto set their hands and seals this the day and year first above written."

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of John Watson and James Watson.

Signed by Matthias Hershman in German script. William and Jacob each made his mark.

The same day a similar paper was recorded, in which for the same amount, the same brothers Matthias, William and Jacob sold to John and Frederick the tract of 290 acres that Andrew had acquired May 22, 1790.

A similar paper was recorded in Frederick County, Maryland, March 2, 1798 in which Matthias, William, John and Frederick Hershman sell to Jacob Hershman for 700 pounds all that tract of land in Frederick County called "Three Tracts" granted unto Andrew Hershman April 23, 1791.

The names of Andrew's children are given on page 11. To each of these children whose record is known a chapter is devoted, and to each of the grandchildren a section.

CHAPTER ONE

CHRISTIAN HERSHMAN I

Although Christian spelled his surname as written above, all his children adopted the spelling "Harshman".

Of this family we have an almost complete record.

Christian was born in Germany April 22, 1744. As he is the only one of Andrew's children known to have been born in Germany I am assuming that he was the eldest of the children.

One of Christian's granddaughters relates the story that as the family was about to leave Germany, Christian went into the church at night and rang the bell as a kind of parting salute. This was considered quite a serious offense and if he had been found out he would probably have been punished; but fortunately for him the identity of the bell ringer was not discovered, at least not until the family was safely away.

It is also said that Christian "was detailed by General Braddock to convoy provisions to Braddock's Army when they were on the march to chastize the French and Indians at a place where the city of Pittsburgh now stands."

This famous and unfortunate march occurred in 1755. Their route lay to the southward, not a great distance from where the Harshmans lived, but as Christian was at that time but eleven years old it is evident that he was not detailed by General Braddock to perform this important service. The truth probably is that he accompanied his father or some other older person as a driver of one of the teams or as a helper in some other way.

When the 1790 Census was taken Christian's children were still all at home, only one of the boys being over 16 years of age.

G. M. Brumbaugh in "Maryland Records" quotes the following interesting item:

"Poll taken at the Court House in Frederick Town in and for Frederick County. Begun on second Wednesday of November 1796, Nov. 9, and continued by adjournment from day to day until the 12th for electing an elector of the President and Vice President of the United States of America, to wit: John Tyler Federalist and George Murdock Democrat-Republican."

Thursday the 10th, in the afternoon, Christian and John Harshman voted for Murdock. Murdock, a Jefferson elector was elected, but Jefferson did not have enough electors to make him President, and John Adams became President and Jefferson Vice President.

None of these Maryland Harshmans owned slaves and none of them had war records. Undoubtedly this was because their religious faith forbade both their holding slaves and their going to war.

Christian was a prosperous farmer owning several hundred acres of land. It is not quite clear where his "dwelling Plantation" was, but in 1782 he bought a tract called "Tuckott" and another called "The Breeches." In 1791 he bought "Pleasant Meadows" and in 1801 he bought "Stoney Arabia", 249 acres, from Susanna Grossnickle for 200 pounds.

This last named farm did not become his home, but it did become the home of Christian II, willed to him by his father.

Christian I married the daughter of a neighboring farmer, Catherine Grossnickle (June 15, 1752-1832). They reared a family of five sons and eight daughters.

Christian and his wife must have been strong characters for their children and grandchildren became prominent and forceful leaders in the business, industrial and social life of their respective counties and cities.

Only one of the sons, Christian II, remained in his native county. John, Philip, Jonathan and three of their sisters, Ann Maria, Esther and Christina went to try their fortunes in the then wilderness of southwestern Ohio, about the time Ohio became a state. Two of the sons, Philip and Christian, were Dunkard preachers.

Christian Harshman I, died Oct. 16, 1816. His wife, Catherine, died in 1832.

Christian's will, dated Aug. 28, 1816 and probated Nov. 18 of the same year, is an interesting document and a copy of it may be found in the back part of this book.

SECTION ONE

JOHN HARSHMAN, SON OF CHRISTIAN I

John Harshman, the second child of Christian Harshman I, was born in Frederick County, Maryland. April 13, 1772 and died in Greene County, Ohio, July 4, 1852.

Susan Durnbaugh, his wife, was born July 14, 1778 and died in Greene County, Ohio July 9, 1852. Both are buried in Aley Church Yard, Greene County, Ohio and these dates were copied from the tombstones.

The three brothers, John, Philip and Jonathan went to Ohio at nearly the same time, probably 1803 or 1804. John settled in Beaver Creek Township.

It seems that the family must have been abating somewhat in their opposition to war, for both John and Philip were soldies in the war of 1812.

In Robinson's History of Greene County is a list of the soldiers of Greene County in that war. Included in the list are:

John Harshman, Beaver, Creek, Zachary Ferguson's Company.

Philip Harshman, Beaver Creek, Zachary Ferguson's Company.

Henry Harshman, Beaver Creek, Martin Shuey Captain. Married Dec. 22, 1818 to Polly Fogle.

Jacob Harshman, Beaver Creek, Martin Shuey Captain. Died in Greene County April 20, 1860.

The John and Philip mentioned are the sons of Christian I. Henry is the son of Peter Harshman and so also probably is Jacob.

Peter was a son of Ulrich of Rockingham County Virginia. He came to Greene County about the time Christian's sons came from Maryland. Peter was a first cousin of Christian I, and his sons, Henry and Jacob were, accordingly, second cousins of John and Philip. Here the families met in the third generation.

Here, then, are two Harshman brothers, and their second cousins, another pair of brothers all soldiers in the war of 1812 from one township in Greene County and one of them, Philip, perhaps not at that time but later, a Dunkard Minister.

SECTION THREE

PHILIP HARSHMAN

Philip Harshman, the fifth child of Christian Harshman I, was born in 1777 and died March 18, 1845. He was married April 14, 1804 in Washington County, Maryland, to Fannie Durnbaugh, Mr. Schmucker, a Lutheran minister officiating. Fannie Durnbaugh was born about 1786 and died Jan. 4, 1829.

They are buried in a very small cemetery on what is now known as the Haverstick farm, about six miles east of Dayton. The inscriptions on the tombstones are as follows:

In Memory of
PHILIP HARSHMAN
Who departed this life
March 18, 1845

In Memory of
FRANCES, consort of PHILIP HARSHMAN
Who departed this life
January 4, 1829
Aged 43 years, 6 months

Philip married Eve Ann Phelan Feb. 27, 1838, the Rev. David Winters officiating minister. There were six children of the first marriage and two of the second.

Philip is said to have come to Greene County in 1803. If he did he went back to Maryland the next year for his bride, and returning brought his young wife with him. The roads then were little more than Indian trails and the journey would not be without many hardships and dangers.

They settled in Beaver Township and lived in their wagon until a cabin had been built. That cabin in 1931 is still standing.

Philip was a farmer and a Dunkard preacher. As previously related he was a soldier in the War of 1812.

Christian Harshman II, son of Christian I, was born September 15, 1779, and died August 20, 1853.

May 6, 1801 he was married to Elizabeth Shikler, who was born Nov. 11, 1771 and died May 13, 1845.

Christian inherited from his father a tract of land called "The Resurvey of part of Stony Arabia", containing 249 acres, but he was to pay the other heirs certain sums of money for it. This land his father bought in 1801 from Susanna Grossnickle for 200 pounds. The Grossnickle Dunkard Church stands on one corner of this farm, or on a piece cut off from it before it was sold to Christian Harshman. It is about three miles north of Myersville.

Christian II bought other adjoining tracts till he had 605 acres in one block. He had a sawmill and a blacksmith shop on the place.

Christian II left the original "Stony Arabia" tract of 249 acres to his eldest son, Daniel, and the other parts of the farm to the other heirs.

Daniel sold this 249 acres to his son Amos, who being unable to pay for it sold off certain parts and finally sold the last remaining part to Charles F. Carter, whose wife was a Harshman. Mr Carter sold it to the present owner, Elroy Leatherman. Mrs. Leatherman is a granddaughter of Daniel and great granddaughter of Christian Harshman II. Although not now in the Harshman name the farm has been in the Harshman family since 1801.

When Mr. Leatherman bought the farm there were only 98½ acres in it. He has bought back portions that had been sold until he now owns 154 acres, and it is his ambition and purpose to continue to add to it until he has all the original 249 acres.

A new barn was built in 1833. It is a bank barn, 70 feet by 40 feet. The first story is of stone and the walls are two feet thick. The superstructure is of heavy logs and weatherboarded. It is well roofed and has been kept in good repair. It looks as if it might, barring earthquake or fire, stand for a thousand years. Some time later an addition was built to it, and there are several other farm buildings.

A new house also replaced the old one, but the latter is still standing and is used for a store house. The date of the building of the new house is not known. The Pennsylvania Dutchman usually built a good barn before he built a good house. It is believed, however, that the new house was built not long after the building of the new barn.

The house, like the barn, is very substantially built and looks as if it might stand for many generations.

The basement story is of stone, the walls being two feet thick. The ceiling is low. This first story is divided into two rooms, the one across the west end, about 10 feet wide, being the milk room. A spring flows through this room in a large trough in which stand the milk and cream jars.

The remainder of this basement forms one large room used as kitchen and living room. It is warm in winter and cool in summer.

Upon this stone walled basement is built a two story log house, weather-boarded without and plastered within. The logs are large and the joists over the basement story project on the south side forming a porch. There is not a clothes closet in the house. The family must either hang their clothes along a wall or build in wardrobes. Thus far the latter had not been done.

A room was built on to the west side of the house in 1853 for the use of Catherine, the daughter of Christian the second.

The spring, after flowing through the milk room, falls into a trough running lengthwise along the wall on the porch, and from there it is conducted to a very large trough in the lane below the house where the stock is watered. So far as I know this farm has been in the possession of the Harshman family longer than any other property, and I have therefore thought it worthy of this description.

The blacksmith shop which stood in the field below—east of—the house, was torn down in 1928.

Through all these years the farm has been in the possession of people of the Dunkard faith. The Grossnickel Church on the main road about half a mile from the house has now a congregation of 200 and a Sunday School of 250.

Christian II, like his brother Philip, was a Dunkard preacher. In that day it was not thought improper for anyone to take a glass of liquor, and he is said to have followed the general custom, but he never drank to intoxication.

He was a lover of good horses and kept a very fine team of six horses and a covered wagon. Whenever this team went on the road he came behind it on a grey horse. This was the procedure even when they hauled their produce to market in Baltimore, about 65 miles distant, and brought back provisions.

Christian and his wife are buried in a private cemetery on the old farm. The graves are marked by granite slabs about 15 inches by 36 inches.

On one is the inscription: "In Memory of Christian Harshman, born Sept. 15, 1779. Died Aug. 20, 1853, aged 73 years, 11 months and 5 days."

On the other: "Elizabeth Shikler, born Nov. 11, 1771, died May 13, 1845. Aged 73 years, 6 months and 9 days. Christian Harshman and his wife lived in wedlock 44 years, 7 days."

Other graves on this lot are those of Catherine Harshman born Aug. 19, 1802, died Aug. 3, 1862. Susanna Harshman d. May 26, 1822. Peter Harshman d. Oct. 20, 1839, and two stones without inscriptions. The unmarked stones are probably for unnamed infants.

SECTION FIVE

JONATHAN HARSHMAN

Jonathan Harshman is one of the three sons of Christian Harshman I, who left the Maryland home and went to the frontier country of southwestern Ohio. In the "History of the Winters Family" the story is told somewhat as follows: Jonathan Harshman, sixth child of Christian Harshman, was born in Frederick County, Maryland. In 1805 he, with others from the same neighborhood, emigrated to Kentucky and located temporarily in the Blue Grass region near Lexington. Here he remained for about a year and then returned to Maryland. He took back with him a number of horses which he had purchased during his sojourn, and from the sale of which in the East he hoped to realize a fine profit. The result of this venture has not been handed down.

During the following year he made a second visit to the Blue Grass region, but not desiring to locate permanently in a slave state, remained there but a short time, then came to Green County, Ohio.

About this time the Rensch family came into this neighborhood from Maryland. Jonathan Harshman became acquainted with this family and married the daughter, Susan.

He first located on a farm in Mad River Township and later purchased the property that became the site of Harshmanville. He became a distiller on a small scale, making at first one barrel of spirits a day.

After he moved to the place that later became Harshmanville he greatly enlarged the business and became one of the wealthiest men in the county.

 Here he owned a flour mill, distillery, cooper shop and sawmill. He was also interested in the banking business, and in real estate. At the time of his death he owned $400,000 in cash and securities and 75 farms, each of 160 acres or more.

CHAPTER TWO

JOHN HARSHMAN, SON OF ANDREW

In 1931 I visited the family of Jacob Harshman, west of Quincy, Franklin County, Pennsylvania. He is the son of William and the grandson of Jacob Harshman. Further than this he does not know.

I am unable to say who this elder Jacob was, though almost certainly he was a grandson of Andrew. The families of all the sons of Andrew are known, at least in part, except the families of William and John.

John and Frederick, on their father's death, acquired the farms that he had owned in Franklin County. At least two of the sons of Frederick went to Ohio. The most probable conjecture is that this Jacob was a son of John the son of Andrew.

With the understanding that this is by no means proved to be the case I am assuming that he was a son of John, who was in turn a son of Andrew. The record would then be as follows:

16 John, son of Andrew.

161 Jacob, son of John. m. (1) Frederick,
(2) Susan Heller.

*Children of JACOB HARSHMAN and (1) FREDERICK,

CHAPTER THREE

JACOB HARSHMAN, SON OF ANDREW

The record of Jacob Harshman's descendants is far from complete. When his father, Andrew, died, the sons made a settlement of the estate among themselves. John and Frederick acquired the three pieces of land in Franklin County, Pa., and Jacob acquired the tract in Frederick County, Maryland, known as "Three Tracts Altogether", which Andrew had patented April 23, 1791. (Book W. R. 16).

Fifteen days later, March 18, 1798, the five brothers, Matthias, William, John, Frederick and Jacob sold this same "Three Tracts" to Bernat Swope.

The land seems to have come back to the Harshman family again, for 34 years later, April 3, 1832, it is once more sold and the deed is signed by Elizabeth (Harshman) Delanter, David Delanter and his wife Catherine (Harshman) Delanter, George Harshman and his wife Mary, Jacob Harshman, Isaac Gilbert and his wife Mary (Harshman), Christian Harshman and his wife Rhoda, Samuel Harshman and his wife Sarah Ann, and John Harshman, the children of Jacob, son of Andrew.

Children of JACOB HARSHMAN and ELIZABETH KLINE.

- 171 George Harshman m. Mary Kessler.
- 172 Elizabeth Harshman m. Sept. 9, 1815 David Delanter, by the Rev. Rahouser. Washington County, Maryland. Afterward married John Hoover.

CHAPTER IV

FREDERICK HERSHMAN

I have placed Frederick as the eighth child of Andrew Harshman. After the death of Andrew his sons John and Frederick acquired his farms in Franklin County Pennsylvania and, presumably, continued to live there.

Daniel Hershman of Pittsburg stated at a reunion in Trumbull County, Ohio, in 1873, that Frederick Hershman was born in 1757. As it seems that this was the only one of Andrew's sons whose birth date Daniel knew, and as Daniel was born in Franklin County, it is probable that he was a son of Frederick.

At this same reunion Daniel stated that his father lived to be 107 and his grandfather 120. This agrees with what is stated elsewhere of Andrew's great age.

Daniel Hershman had a brother Jeremiah, whose home during the last years of his life was in Howland Tp. Trumbull County, Ohio. If there were other children their names are not known.

These brothers were lost to each other for many years. On one occasion Daniel, who manufactured and sold washing machines, was on a sales trip in Eastern Ohio. He had sold a machine to a farmer and when he signed his name on the contract the farmer said "We have a neighbor by the name of Harshman". Daniel said, "but my name is Hershman". But the farmer insisted that after they should have had their supper that they would call on this neighbor. They did so and Daniel found him to be his lost brother Jeremiah.

CHAPTER V

MATTHIAS HARSHMAN SON OF ANDREW

Matthias, the ninth and youngest child of Andrew Harshman was born in 1761, probably in Maryland. He married a German girl, Mary Smith, who also was born in 1761.

Mary Smith was a "Redemptioner". That is she was sold, or bound out, for a certain definite period, by her parents or guardian, to pay for her passage over to this country. Many of the emigrants were desperately poor and this was a common occurrence among them.

Mary Smith's master was a farmer, and he was very cruel to her. On one occasion he sent her to the barn on a cold winter night to see what was troubling the stock. In some way she was pushed, her arm broken and she was otherwise seriously injured. She lay in the barn yard, unable to get to the house, until in the early morning a passerby heard her moans, took her to the house, and reported the matter to the authorities. Because of his cruelty to her the authorities cancelled the bond and she was not required to serve the remainder of her time.

Matthias Harshman and Mary Smith were married when they were twenty or twenty one years old.

When their father Andrew died, Matthias, William and Jacob, three of the sons, sold their interest in their father's estate to two of their brothers, John and Frederick. They each received for their part 508 pounds 10 shillings. This was in March 1798.

Probably "not many days after this the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country," namely into Washington County, Pa.

There he appears first on the book of the assessor for Amwell Township, for 1803. He was assessed on 200 acres of land, 1 cow and 5 horses. The amount of his tax was 90 cents.

The next year he was assessed on 300 acres of land, which apparently was a mistake for he appealed and had it changed to 200 acres. There was also 1 cow and 5 horses. By this change the tax was reduced from $13.06 to $8.30.

He last appears on the assessor's book for 1807. The reason for this was that he had again moved west, this time into the new state of Ohio. His youngest child, Andrew, was born near Ohlton, Ohio, Sept. 7, 1807. Probably all the other children were born before the family left Maryland.

The following incident concerning Matthias has been handed down to us.

The National Pike from Baltimore to Wheeling was opened to traffic about 1825. Matthias Harshman drew into Steubenville, Ohio, the first load of dry goods that came into that town over the new Pike. His eight horse team stuck with the load as they were drawing it up from the river to the town. Presumably it had been ferried over, as the river was not fordable at that point and there was no bridge there then nor for many decades afterward.

Matthias died Jan. 2, 1837 at the home of his son Andrew, a mile and a half east and three quarters of a mile south of the center of Lordstown. His wife, Mary Smith died at the same place in 1852.

DESCENDANTS OF HENRY, SON OF DANIEL

Henry Harshman, the fifth child of Daniel Harshman and Magdalena Moninger was born in Lordstown, Ohio, March 14, 1816. He was united in marriage June 3, 1840, to Margaret Metzler, of Washington Penn.

Margaret Metzler was born in Germany July 5, 1822, and came to this country with her parents when she was nine years old. She learned to speak English in a Sunday School.

Henry bought a small farm one mile west of Washington on the National Pike, and built there a brick house that is still in use (1931). All their children were born there except the youngest.

Thinking his farm too small for his large family he sold it in the Spring of 1865 and went to Indiana to visit his father, Daniel Harshman, who was sick.

While on this trip he stopped in Hancock County, Ohio, to visit a former neighbor, John Bame. While there he bought a farm of 120 acres about three miles north of Williamstown. On the 7th of September of that year he moved his family to Ohio, his brother-in-law, Jacob Metzler with his wife and son being also of the company, making twelve persons.

While waiting the arrival of their goods they stayed two weeks with their friends the Bames.

There was a wedding in the Bame family on the day of their arrival, and in the evening a dance and still later a "belling".

Besides the pleasures of the wedding festivities there was also the pleasure of meeting the new neighbors from Pennsylvania. They must have liked the new comers, for four of the young men who were there that night each later married one of the Harshman girls. They were Enos Rodabaugh, James Rodabaugh, John L. Rees and William Bame.

The Rodabaughs were Pennsylvania German Dunkards. Daniel Rodabaugh, the grandfather of Enos and James Rodabaugh came from Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania to Columbiana County, Ohio, and from there to Hancock County in 1832. They were one of the sterling pioneer families.

Henry Harshman lived on the farm north of Williamstown where he settled, until his death on Aug. 10, 1880. Margaret Metzler Harshman died at the home of her daughter, Margaret Jane Bame May 8, 1898. Henry and his wife are buried in the Eagle Creek Cemetery about three miles west of Williamstown.

SECTION FIVE

JACOB, SON OF MATTHIAS HARSHMAN, AND HIS DESCENDANTS

Jacob Harshman was born in Frederick County, Maryland, Nov. 11, 1790. Elizabeth Moninger was born May 19, 1793 probably in Frederick County, Maryland. They were married in Washington County, Pennsylvania, 1813.

Elizabeth Moninger was the daughter of John and Magdalene Moninger, and a sister of Magdalene Moninger who married Jacob's eldest brother, Daniel. The Moninger family came from Germany probably to Funktown, Maryland, sometime prior to 1789. They came to Washington County, Pennsylvania, about the time the Harshman family came, about 1803 and located in the same neighborhood. The children of John and Magdalena Moninger were, Mary Shipe, Catherine Moore, Magdalene Harshman, George, Henry, John, Jacob and Elizabeth Harshman.*

*NOTE: MR. GRANT MONINGER, Washington, Pa., has prepared, in manuscript, a genealogy of the Moninger family.

Jacob Harshman lived in Amwell Township on a farm now owned (1931) by Mrs. Minerva Scine (farmed by her grandson, a Mr. Hilberry). It was formerly called the Isaac Shipe farm. The John Moninger farm was on the southeast of this Jacob Harshman farm, and Daniel Harshman owned the farm joining the Moninger's on the east, (known as the Hewitt farm.)

The Jacob Harshman house had three rooms, and a loft above where the boys slept. There was a porch along the north end of the house facing the spring. The house was destroyed by fire several years ago but the site is easily identified. The ruins of the spring house lie about the spring which is still flowing, and the cherry trees that shade it today are doubtless descendants of those from which Jacob Harshman and his family picked cherries one hundred and fifteen years ago.

The Harshman family, true to the spirit of the times, was ever pushing westward. Jacob's father, Matthias had moved to Ohio in 1806 or 1807, and now Jacob follows. It was in 1836 when the youngest of their children was six years old. Jacob first went to see the country, and if favorably impressed, to select a place for their home.

As he was returning two weeks later his wife, Elizabeth, saw him coming down the hill opposite their house and went down into the valley to meet him. She began to cry and on her husband asking her what was the matter she said, "Oh, I guess it is just tender hearted foolishness." Certainly some giving way to her feelings was justified in view of all that it meant to leave the old home and go still farther into the frontier.

They settled on a small farm in the south eastern part of Lordstown Township, Trumbull County, about a quarter of a mile west of what was known as Soaptown Corners. These corners got their name from the fact that there was a small soap factory near there. The old log building of the "factory" in a state of ruin was still standing, when, in my boyhood, just after the close of the Civil War, I used to visit my grandmother's home. At the time to which I refer Jacob Harshman, my grandfather, was deceased, but my grandmother was living in the west end of the house, a frame structure of one room. The east end of the house was of logs, was somewhat larger than the frame part, and had a loft to it.

There was a porch in front of the log house, the porch being flush with the road. Indeed the road seemed to have to curve a little to get around the house. There was also a porch at the back the full length of both parts of the house. The east end of this back porch was enclosed, forming a small bed room, and the west end was enclosed making a milk house.

Near the milk house was the well with an old fashioned well sweep and an "old oaken bucket".

The house faced north. The farm lay on both sides of the road, and a small brook, the Little Meander, flowed through the field just across from the house.

Levi Harshman, one of the sons, lived in the log part of the house with his wife and nine children. After his mother's death Levi became the owner of the farm and after his death it passed into the possession of his son Homer Harshman.

Before this, however, Levi had built a new house, farther back from the road, so that the well, with a pump in it now, is in the front yard now instead of in the back yard.

At the present writing (1932) the farm is occupied by the family of Homer Harshman (deceased), so that it has been in possession of some member of the family ever since May 23, 1838. On that date George and Jane Hardman deeded to Jacob Harshman this farm of 50 acres, part of lot 14 in the Salt Spring Tract, for a consideration of $450.00.

Children of JACOB HARSHMAN and ELIZABETH MON-INGER

- 1951 Matthias Harshman (Washington County, Penn. Sept. 9, 1814–Nov. 13, 1880). m. May 22, 1835 Rachel Ross (July 7, 1815–). Home Milton Township, Mahoning County, Ohio. The house, still standing (1931) and occupied, is of brick two stories and a half high, with a wide hall running through it.
- 1952 John Harshman (Amwell Tp. Washington County Penn., March 27, 1816–). m. Dec. 28, 1845 Rachel Jones (Cumberland County, Penn. Oct. 30, 1828–).

Rachel Jones was a daughter of Samuel and Susanna Jones. Samuel Jones and his family lived on a mountain side five or six miles from Carlisle, Pennsylvania, near enough that they could hear the ringing of the church bells in the city. Samuel Jones was the son of Robert Jones of Wales, and Jane Chestnut of Ireland. Robert Jones lost his sight at thirty years of age, regained it at sixty, and died at ninety.

Samuel and Susanna Jones had two sons and eight daughters. In the Summer of 1833 or 1834 they moved to Ohio. They went in the only available manner at that time, a covered wagon; the children taking turns walking and riding. The way, of course, lay across the mountains and was approximately 250 miles.

They settled on a farm about two miles south of the Center of Lordstown, in Trumbull County. The farm was later owned by Samuel Kistler, and still later by his son Charles Kistler.

I have set all this down as of interest because three Harshman brothers married four of these Jones Sisters. John married Rachel. Jacob married Elizabeth and after her death married Catherine, and George W. married Susanna.

John and Rachel lived first in Lordstown, then at various places in Mercer County, Pa., and the last years of their lives in Mingo, Junction, Ohio.

SECTION NINE

DESCENDANTS OF MATTHIAS HARSHMAN (II)

Matthias Harshman (Jan. 15, 1801–Dec. 16, 1876). March 22, 1822 married Phebe Denean (Sept. 8, 1805–July 2, 1887). He was a carpenter, wagon maker and cabinet maker. He made the floor for the Western Reserve Seminary in West Farmington, Ohio, an important educational institution in that part of the state during the last two thirds of the nineteenth century. He lived in Parkman, Ohio, where he had a sawmill on the Grand River.

He also had extensive stone quarries, and he and his wife quarried blue limestone by building fires on the ledge of rock until it was heated, and then pouring water on it to crack it. About 1870 they moved to Garrettsville, where he had a clothing store.

Four of their sons grew to manhood, and all of them served in the Union Army of the Civil War.

PART TWO

MATTHIAS ULRICH HERSHMAN

The village of Hersman, Brown County, Illinois, was founded by descendants of Matthias Hershman. One of these descendants, Miss Elizabeth Curry, has preserved, in written form, the traditions of this branch of the family.

According to her account Matthias Hershman and his wife came to America at an early date and settled in Virginia. They were Dunkards. Their son George was born on the ocean as they were coming to this country. Matthias was married the second time when he was 95 and lived with his second wife 30 years. He was blind during the last several years of his life. The city of Hampton, Va. stands on land that was once the farm of George Hershman.

The Hon. A. M. Hersman, of Spencer, West Virginia, also a descendant of Matthias Hershman, writes me as follows:

"I can not vouch for the correctness of the record which I have. It says that about the year 1770 Matthias Hershman sailed from some port in Germany, landed in one of the ports on the Atlantic Coast and settled in Hampshire County, Virginia, (now Mineral County, W. Va.), on Patterson Creek. I have no record as to his wife's name. They had five children whose names were: John, Christopher, George, Philip and Margaret. Matthias' body now rests in the Beaver Run Cemetery.

"The old men of the place at the time my record was secured, claimed that there was a stone in the cemetery with his initials engraved on it, also the date of his death and birth, which made him 125 years old. Tradition has it that he married the second time at the age of 105 years.

These traditions are very interesting, and for the most part they are confirmed by the records. They agree as to the age of Matthias. I did not yet know of his burial place when I was in that part of the country, and since learning of it I have not succeeded in getting a copy of the inscriptions on the tombstones.

The story that George Hersman owned the farm where Hampton now stands, is probably a confusion of the names Hampton and Hampshire, as I could find no evidence whatever that any of the family ever lived in the county where Hampton stands.

As stated in another place Matthias Hershman came to this country with his three brothers in 1751. He did not, however settle in Virginia until sometime in the 1770's.

Matthias almost always spelled his name "Hershman", though many of his descendants have dropped out the second "h".

The first mention I have found of him in the records of Frederick County, Md., is of June 12, 1761, when he bought from Adam Naff a tract of land called "Nazarite." In this tract were 100 acres for which he paid 35 pounds. (Deed Book G, p. 265.)

Ten months later, April 9, 1762, he bought a tract contiguous to the first, and called "Tickneck", consisting of 54 acres. For this he paid 20 pounds. (Deed Book G, p. 466.)

June 16, 1767 he sold these two tracts of land to Christian Hershman for 150 pounds. The same day he entered into an agreement with Christian, in two parts. In the first part Christian agrees to allow Matthias and his wife to continue to live in the house on the farm, to keep two cows and two sheep, and to furnish them annually certain amounts of grain, pork, etc. In the second part Christian agrees to sell the farms back to Matthias for 5 shillings. But if Christian keeps the first part of the agreement the second part is null and void.

It would seem as if Matthias purposed to retire from active work as a farmer. However he continued to be active in real estate. March 20, 1771 he bought for 120 pounds a tract of land called "Forest", and less than six weeks later, Apr. 27, 1771, sold it for 180 pounds, realizing a profit of fifty per cent on the investment.

The next mention I found of him was in Hampshire County W. Virginia. Matthias and several other Hershmans, apparently his sons, had investments on Patterson's Creek and Beaver Run in the west part of the county, now a part of Mineral County. The other names occurring here are Philip, Gaspar (or Caspar), George and Christopher.

The earliest Hershman deed found here is dated May 11, 1779, by which Matthias Hershman and his wife Eve, convey to George Hersman 143 acres for 140 pounds. There is no record of Matthias having bought the land and I do not, therefore, know how long he had owned it before selling it to his son George.

The last transaction in which Matthias' name appears is dated March 12, 1783, when he sold a piece of land to George Beard. He had bought this land from John Reno, sold it to Philip "Hearsman", bought it again, and now sold it to George Beard.

CHILDREN OF MATTHIAS HERSHMAN

Hon. A. M. Hersman's list included five names, John, Christopher, George, Philip and Margaret.

I did not find in the records any mention of John but I did find a Gaspar. Also it would seem likely that the Christian Hershman with whom Matthias entered into an agreement by which Matthias was to receive certain goods annually, was most likely a son of Matthias.

The census of 1790 lists one Jacob Harshman in Hampshire County, and in his household were 8 males 16 years of age or older. Andrew had a son Jacob, but so far as known he did not live in Hampshire County, and an early record of his family only mentions five sons. It therefore seems probable that the Jacob of the census was a son of Matthias.

Philip settled in Preston County, West Virginia. Some of his descendants now live near Philippi, Barber County.

Margaret is said to have lived and died in Baltimore.

There is a family of Hersmans in Virginia and the Carolinas whose members trace their ancestry back to an early settler, who had a rice plantation near Savannah Georgia, whose first name is unknown to them. There is a small town in Screven County, Georgia, named Hershman, and it is thought likely this early Herhman's rice Plantation was located some place in that Vicinity, and that the town got its name from him.

There was a certain man whose name was variously spelled Casper Hertzman, John Gasper Hertsman and John Gasper Hershman, who petitioned the Colonial Government of Georgia for the patent of certain lands at Halifax, lying between the lands of William McDonald and Conrad Roper.

Again in Oct. 1765 "having been in the Province for many years, having a wife, a child and seven negroes, and never had any land granted to him" he petitioned for 200 acres in Halifax. It was granted on certain conditions.

Again in March 1771 John Gasper Hershman "who had been long resident in the Province, had a wife and three children" petitioned for a grant of 300 acres of land in St. George's Parish adjoining land of Andrew Grimm. Petition Granted.

Mrs. Ida G. Cardwell, born in 1838, now living in Wilmington, N. C., says that her grandfather Hersman, initials unkown, settled near Savannah, Georgia where her father George Hersman was born on a rice plantation. She is under the impression that this was 40 or 50 miles from Savannah, and to the south.

The town of Hersman above mentioned, is however about that far north of Savannah and near the Savannah River.

Mrs. Cardwell does not seem to recognize any of the family traditions, but her son's wife says she remembers her husband's grandmother (the wife of the above George Hersman) say that the family came from Baden-Baden, and that she remembered her mentioning one Eve Hersman among the ancestors.

These two things, while they may seem slight, nevertheless are very important. It suggests the possibility that this family is descended from Matthias Ulrich and his wife Eve. This John Casper might have been the son of Matthias. No one can say.

The next four chapters contain the record of the descendants of Mathtias Hershman as far as I have been able to secure them. This data is arranged not in order of the ages of Matthias' children, for that is unkown, but in the order in which I acquired the information.

CHAPTER TWO

GASPER HARSHMAN OF FAYETTE CO., PENNSYLVANIA AND HIS DESCENDANTS

The Gaspar, or Casper, Harshman whose descendants are given here was probably a son of Matthias Ulrich, of Hampshire County, now West Virginia, but I am by no means certain of this. His wife was evidently deceased before he made his will so that her name does not occur in that document.

Gaspar Hersman of Hampshire County sold one piece of property in that county March 10, 1781, another Aug. 12, 1783 and another Nov. 19, 1791.

On the other hand Gaspar Hersman appears on the tax list of Elizabeth Township, Allegheny County, Pa., in 1781. He may have sold his residence farm in 1781 and have moved to Allegheny county, and later have sold these other tracts which may have been wild lands. It is impossible to tell. But as the probabilities are that this is the son of Matthias Ulrich Harshman I have so classified him.

His will, on record in the court house of Fayette County, disposes of a farm of 53 acres lying in the forks of the Youghiogeny River in Allegheny County, on which there was a mortgage, and a small amount of personal property. Five daughters and one son are named in the will in the order given below.

In signing deeds in Hampshire County Casper's wife's name is once written Agnes, once Anne, and once Mary. Whether he had more than one wife, or whether there was more than one Casper I cannot say.

- 2234 Rebecca Harshman m. a Leighty.

- 2236 David Harshman.

From Joab Harshman, living in Breakneck, near Connellsville, Pa., I received the information that his father, George Harshman, had a brother Samuel, a sister Mary who married Abraham Strickler, and a half brother David.

Jacob L. Harshman of Vanderbilt, Pa., told me that George also had a brother Joseph who lived "out west someplace." Also I have heard that there was another sister, Rebecca, who married a Leithliter. I am not very certain about the authority for this, but I am including the name with the rest.

CHAPTER THREE

JACOB HARSHMAN OF FAYETTE COUNTY, PA.

This is quite a numerous family and unfortunately it is uncertain just what their relation is to the parent stock. For convenience of record however it is best to give them a place and name numbers. There can be little doubt that they are descendants either of Andrew or Matthias. Andrew had a son Jacob, and so probably had Matthias, as there was one Jacob Harshman living in Hampshire County in 1790. But Jacob the son of Andrew and Jacob the son of Matthias were apparently both older than this Jacob in Fayette County. There seems but one other assumption to make, namely that this Jacob was a grandson of Andrew or Matthias.

As Gasper who is believed to have been the son of Matthias was living in Fayette County I am arbitrarily assuming that Jacob is a grandson of Matthias (though not a son of Gasper.)

PART THREE

ULRICH HARSHMAN

As previously related Ulrich Harshman, one of the four brothers who came from Germany, settled in Rockingham County, Virginia. His name appears in various forms as "Ulry", "Oldrick", "Oelry", "Woolry" and so forth. The last name is usually Hershman or Hershmond, but also Harshman.

Many of the records of this county were destroyed in the Civil War. Fearing that the court house would be destroyed, the most important records were loaded on a wagon and a negro started with them for the mountains. Before he reached there a tire came off one of the wheels and the wheel broke down. Before this could be repaired a detachment of Sheridan's cavalry came by. They piled the books by the road and set fire to them. Some were destroyed, some partially destroyed and some escaped injury. After the war those only partly destroyed were copied, and there is a shelf of books in the court house now marked "Burned Records."

No doubt many deeds and other papers that would have been helpful in preparing this history were destroyed.

The first mention I found of Ulrich Harshman was dated May 12, 1763, when a piece of land was surveyed for him. This is just one month before Andrew Harshman bought his first farm in Frederick County and two years after Matthias bought a farm in Frederick County.

This tract of land that was surveyed for Ulrich in 1763 lies on the "south-east side of the Shenandoah River." It appears from the plan accompanying this survey that the river at this point flows somewhat north of east. As the land extends due south from the river that makes the east line a little longer than the west line, and the north line a little longer than the south line. The line running along the river, from west to north east, is 62 rods, that running north and south on the east side of the tract is 120 rods, that running north and south along the west side of the tract is 90 rods, and the line running east and west along the south side of the tract is 42 rods.

The men of Virginia, probably within certain age limits, were required to attend military drill at stated times. Whether it was from conscientious objections to war, or whether it was that they would rather pay a fine than to take the time to attend muster, these Harshmans were on a few occasions, along with numerous others, cited to attend a court martial.

"At a Ct. Martial held for Augusta County, Virginia, Apr. 17, 1767, being the next day after the General Muster, Colonel Andrew Lewis President:

Captain Francis Hinkly reported delinquent, Oldrick Hushman, be summoned to show cause why he did not appear at one private muster, Apr. 11, 1767."

"At a Court Martial held for Augusta County April 9, 1770. Colonel Abraham Smith President:

"Peter Hushman be summoned for not appearing at a private muster, the 2nd September, 1769."

"At a Court Martial held for 2nd Battalion of 58th Regiment, Tuesday Oct. 26, 1819, Captain John Rush reported:

"Jerebemon Harshman (1) non attendance at muster."

(-Record in City Hall, Staunton, Virginia.)

Entries like the following seem to indicate that all property owners were taxed to support the militia.

"Land owners in Rockingham County. 13th Military district. Harshman, Peter, 110 acres".

Military Voucher in 1788, Captain John Peters' Company No. 16.

"Peter Harshman 1 tithable, 2 horses."

In the History of Rockingham County by J. K. Ruebush and P. H. Elkins, p. 59, is a list of tithables for 1775. Among them are:

"Ulry Harshman, 2."

"Ulry Harshman Jr., 1."

Not only were they taxed, but they received pay for certain supplies furnished the army. In the same history, p. 29, March 29, 1782 certain amounts were allowed to Woolry Harshman" for military supplies furnished, for public service with teams, for flour, beef, pasturage, rations etc."

March 31, 1782 accounts were allowed for "linen, making tents, for flour, beef, pasturage, rations etc." to Woolry Harshman.

"To the militia of the County of Augusta, and for provisions furnished by sundry of said County, viz. To Holerick Hushman 17 s". (Henning's Statutes at Large, 1756 to 1763, p. 187.)

Ulrich Harshman died sometime before February 10, 1783, for on that date his executrix, Catherine Harshman, (probably his widow), was having a certain piece of land surveyed.

This land was bounded on the north by Stephen Coonrad's farm. I was able to locate and identify the Coonrad farm by a brick house that still stands on the farm. Miss Elizabeth Miller, born about 1840, and whose great-great grandfather was the first white man to settle in that valley, told me that she knows it to be a fact that the old brick house which is about a quarter of a mile from where the Swift Run Gap road enters the mountains, stands on what was the old Coonrod farm. Daniel and Peter, sons of Ulrich, each had a farm in the same neighborhood. Some of these Harshman farms may lie in what is now Page County, as a corner of Rockingham County was cut out and included in Page when the latter county was formed.

William Harshman also had a farm in the Shenandoah River Valley. He bought 230 acres of Charles and Martha Cross, for which he paid 200 pounds. (Deed Book No. 12, pp. 438-439).

Ulrich had at least three sons, Peter, Daniel and Ulrich Jr. It is probable that the above mentioned William Harshman was also his son. There is also a Jerebemon Harshman mentioned in the records of the county, but that is probably a misspelling for Cherubim Harshman. Cherubim seems to have been a son of Daniel, and therefore a grandson of Ulrich.

Peter and a brother are said to have been in the Revolutionary War. They became separated while in the army and never met or heard of each other after the war ended. Peter is said to have served seven years, or through the duration of the war. Unfortunately there are no official documents known which prove this, though no doubt the facts are as stated.

This book contains the names of more than 1500 descendants of Peter and 157 of the descendants of Daniel.

CHAPTER ONE

PETER HARSHMAN, SON OF ULRICH

Peter Harshman was born in Germany in 1745, and was therefore six years old when the family came to America. He owned a farm on Swift Run Gap Road just at the point where the road enters the Blue Ridge Mountains. I visited the spot in 1931. It is a beautiful country, though as one would expect, lying in the foot hills, it is quite rough for farming.

The following interesting document refers to Peter Harshman's farm. It is dated 1794.

"To the Onerable Speaker and members composing the House of Assembly of Virginia: Your petitioners from the County of Rockingham, having but one publick Merchant Road Over the blew Ridge none (known) by the name of Swift Run Gapp, to which Cheaf of their produce is carried to Alexander, Fredeburg, and the Sity of Richmond; your petitioners' prayer is that you pass an Act to Empower the Court of Rockingham to Leavy on the tithable persons of sd. County not exseading the sum of..... to Repair and ceap in Repair the road Over swift run gapp from Peter Hershmond in sd. County to Daniel Walferd in Orange County; and that the Court of Rockingham shall appoint Commissioners to Agree with some person to seay that the moneys is laid Out to the best Advantage for the said road, and your petitioners shall ever pray

(From History of Rockingham County by John Wayland. Published by Roebuck-Elkins, Co., Dayton, Virginia.)

Among the 125 signers was "Peter Harshmand."

Washington spent four days in Rockingham County in 1784 and as he left over the Swift Run Gap road he must have passed by or near Peter's house, and may have stopped there to bait his horse. In his diary he wrote, "Oct. 2, 1784. I set off very early from Mr. Lewis', who accompanied me to the foot of the Blue Ridge at Swift Run Gap where I bated and proceeded over the Mountain – dined at a pitiful house 14 miles farther where the road to Fredericksburg (by Orange Court House) and that to Culpeper court house fork. Took the latter though in my judgement Culpepper Court House was too much upon my right for a direct course. Lodged at a widow Yearley's 12 miles further where I was hospitably entertained". (Quoted from Wayland's Records.") This is now a paved road over the mountains.

Peter Harshman was twice married. The name of his first wife was Smith. She bore him thirteen children. In 1790 he married Elizabeth Burres, said to have been an English woman. By this second marriage there were four children.

About the time Ohio became a state, 1803, Peter moved to Greene County, Ohio. Some of the sons apparently settled in Preble County, Ohio, and others went on into Indiana. The names of more than 1500 of his descendants are found in this book.

SECTION FOUR

DESCENDANTS OF JAMES, SON OF PETER HARSHMAN I

James Harshman was born in Rockingham County, Virginia, about 1778-1780. He married Rhoda Bush (or Burk). The license was issued August 14, 1799, and doubtless the marriage was solemnized soon thereafter. When the marriage bond was signed Peter Harshman, father of the groom, gave his consent, which probably means that James was not yet of legal age. James and Sarah were twins.

It appears that James did not long remain in Virginia, but soon after his marriage went, as did several other members of the family, to southwestern Ohio, and settled in Preble County. His descendants as far as known are given in this section.

SECTION SIX

DESCENDANTS OF HENRY HARSHMAN, SON OF PETER I

The following record of the descendants of Henry Harshman is approximately complete to date. The greater part of this record was gathered and furnished me by Alice (Mrs. N. E.) Thomas of 1115 Glendon Way, South Pasadena, California. Mrs. Thomas is a daughter of Moses Harshman, second son of Henry Harshman.

The Historical note, also furnished by her, is taken from a History of Clinton County, Indiana, and was prepared for that work by Mr. A. E. Harshman of Frankfort, Indiana.

Historical Note

Henry Harshman was born in Rockingham County, Virginia, Dec. 22, 1797, and while yet a small boy he came with his father to Greene County, Ohio.

He substituted for his brother Peter in the War of 1812 in order that Peter might go home on furlough, but he continued in the army till the close of the war.

On his twenty-first birthday, Dec. 22, 1818, he was married to Mary Magdalene Fogle, who was a daughter of Michael and Mary Fogle, German settlers in Maryland. She was born Feb. 8, 1800.

In 1829 Henry Harshman brought his family to Clinton County, Indiana, and settled on a farm in Washington Township. Many hardships were endured on the journey and they encountered many difficulties in crossing the wild Twelve Mile Prarie to get to this hill farm where spring water, which was thought to be a necessity, could be found.

It was there that Henry C. Harshman, the youngest of the family was born, Feb. 3, 1841. Two years later the death of Henry Harshman occurred on the farm he bought when he came to Indiana. He was buried in the Seager Cemetery. He was only 43 years old.

CHAPTER II

DANIEL HARSHMAN, SON OF ULRICH

In the records of Page County, Virginia, Book 2, p. 298 is an indenture made August 24, 1783, in which George Price executor for Daniel Harshman, deceased, of the County of Page, is selling to Abraham Strickler for \$1465, Daniel Harshman's farm of 174 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres lying on the west side of the Shenandoah River in Rockingham County.

Daniel's death therefor occurred at some time previous to the above date. Apparently he was not a very old man, for he died at about the same time that his father died.

Daniel had a son Daniel mentioned in some deeds and surveys. This last named Daniel in 1798 married Barbara Huffman. This Daniel, grandson of Ulrich, had a family of ten children. One of these was a son named Cherubim, who died in Page County in 1853. His will, dated May 25, 1853, and probated June 25 of the same year, is on record in that county.

He seems to have neither wife nor child as his estate of about $15,000 is divided among his brothers and sisters and the children of his deceased brothers and sisters. There are eight brothers and sisters mentioned in the will, which, with the testator, makes a family of nine. However W. Scott Harshman in his list of the children mentions a tenth, Elizabeth, who married Peter Pence, and lived in Gettyburg, Ohio.

GEORGE HARSHMAN

Mrs. Emma Lampher of Lima, Ohio, wrote me that here grandfather was George Harshman, that he was reared near Dayton Ohio, but that she does not know where he was born. His wife, name unknown, was born in Maryland. They lived for a time in Kentucky near an Indian camp. George Harshman visited this camp often, was very friendly with the Indians, and they called him "White Chief."

A great-grandson of George Harshman, Mr. C. C. Harshman of Pawhuska, Oklahoma, says that George Harshman when a young man worked for a relative in a distillery in Harshmanville, near Dayton, and that he had a brother James. George was probably born sometime prior to 1815 as his son James Hamilton was born in Jan. 1842, and he may have had children older than James Hamilton.

I am unable to place this George. He does not seem to belong to the family of Christian Harshman, and almost surely is a grandson of Peter I but I do not know which son of Peter I was George's father. The families of Peter's sons are pretty well accounted for except those of Jacob and Hiram. The most probable supposition is that George is the son of one of these two. I am therefore sasuming this to be the case and arranging the names accordingly. For this unknown link I am substituting the letter "x" instead of a figure.*

Children of GEORGE HARSHMAN.

31XII James Hamilton Harshman (Near Goshen, Indiana, Jan. 3, 1842-). m. Sarah Morris.

*NOTE: On further reflection I think this George was probably the son of Danie and brother of Cherubim.

MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS

The following letter from the Rev. O. F. Harshman gave me my first start in the early history of the Harshman family. At first I could make nothing out of it but as I accumulated other facts these in the letter became more significant, and, first and last it has been very helpful to me.

Duquesne, Pa.
June 18, 1901.

Rev. C. W. Harshman.
Canton, Ohio.
Dear Cousin:

Your letter of inquiry to hand.  I spent considerable time looking up the record but it was incomplete and contradictory, and must be received "cum grano salo".

In 1873 at the reunion in Lordstown "Uncle Daniel", of Pittsburg was present and told us that the grandfather of Matthias (that is who was our greatgrandfather) came from Germany and settled in Jersey. He had four sons and two daughters. He gave each son a farm and each daughter 400 pounds sterling. Uncle Daniel said his father was 107 years old and his grandfather 120 years old. I took this memoranda at the time.

Something over a year ago I met Dr. C. C. Hersman of Pittsburg, S. S., and in conversation he told me that his great-grandfather lived to be 120 years old and was married five time, he came from Germany and was past 100, perhaps 110 when he married the fifth time. Evidently this doctor is related to us and the name has been changed. Those about Pittsburg spell it Hershman. One of them is part owner of the Pittsburg Press. In the early days I think it was spelled "Hirschmann", which surely is Dutch enough.

In 1874 I had a letter from John Hoover, Wolf'sville, Maryland. His grandmother was Susanna Harshman Hoover, born in 1784. Her grandfather came from Germany about 145 or 150 years prior to that time or about 1719-1724. His name was Andrew. He settled a short distance south of a small town, Middletown, Maryland. Susanna's father was named Christian. "As Andrew Harshman was about to leave Germany his son Christian went into one of the churches and began to ring the bell. This created considerable excitement, and had he been found out he probably would have been punished, but he crossed the deep blue sea without ever having been found out in the Fatherland."

It is also stated by the same source that Christian Harshman son of Andrew, "was detailed by General Braddock's army to convoy provisions to the army when sent to chastize the French and Indians near the place where Pittsburg now stands."

I forgot to say that Uncle Daniel said that Andrew had six children, Frederick, born in 1757, and Matthias, the youngest. Peter, another brother, bit by a mad dog and smothered under a featherbed. William and two girls, names unknown, one of whom married a Mr. Ott (probably George Utt. C. W. H.).

In 1874 I had a letter from Cornelius Mertz, Boonesboro, Maryland, who wrote me that his grandfather's name was Christian Harshman, born in 1744, and great-grandfather's name was Andrew, who settled in Frederick County, Maryland, post office unknown.

A letter from George Harshman, Harmony post office, Md. says his grandfather's name was Jacob, who had a brother named Matthias who was bitten by a mad dog, went mad and the doctor bled him to death.

I visited O. J. Harshman, Union City, Indiana. His great-grandfather was Peter, a German who "Croost the waters of the great deap" as he afterward wrote me. He settled in Rockingham County, Virginia about 1931. His grandfather James, his father Reuben.

From another source I learn that Peter Harshman was a brother of Daniel and that their father's name was Ulrich.

Now I am not able to say if Ulrich was the ancestor of the whole family or whether there were different ones came over at different times. I was not able to find out how many children Ulrich had. He might have been the father of Andrew. You see the darkness of antiquity has settled on this ancestral question. It is too deep to be scattered now. I have a few old documents of little account. One is an administrator's bond which is dated sometime in 1794 and which appoints Matthias Harshman administrator of his father Andrew.

I think it likely that there were migrations from the Fatherland at different times, for in 1874 when I visited George W. Harshman, at Harshman post office, near Dayton, Ohio, I learned that but a little while before two brothers named Harshman came over from Germany and were then employed in his large grist mill. My brother, Timothy, had the records of the descendants of Andrew Harshman and perhaps could throw some light on the subject if you would write him. You may tussle with this genealogical problem for awhile, for I have given up trying to solve it. Hoping this may be of some satisfaction, and with kindest regards, I remain, Fraternally, O. F. Harshman.
